

BESIDES DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS, WHO IS RUNNING FOR THE WHITE HOUSE AND THE U.S. SENATE?

Party	Ohio and national websites	Likely Presidential candidate	Basic ideology
Libertarian	www.lp.org www.lpo.org	Gary Johnson	Small government; maximize individual freedom
Green	www.gp.org www.ohiogreens.org	Dr. Jill Stein (national nominating convention is in August)	Broad reform and expansion of social programs; grassroots democracy; local and community-based economics
Constitution	www.constitutionparty.com www.cpofohio.org	Darrell Castle	Strict interpretation of the Constitution; federal government should do only what the Constitution specifically allows

Non-Republican, non-Democrat candidates for U.S. Senate seat in Ohio

Candidate	Web site	Party affiliation	Platform summary
Tom Connors	www.connorsforsenate.com	independent	Economic freedom; family values; "front porch campaign"
Joseph DeMare	www.joedemareforagreenfuture.org	Green	See web site and ohiogreens.org
Scott Rupert	Scottrupert.com	independent	Similar to Constitution and Libertarian Parties; emphasis on less federal government; adherence to federal government's Constitutional role; and deregulation

To find out more about why you don't see these parties in debates, visit www.opendebates.org and www.fairdebates.com

To find out about a new movement to run an independent conservative, visit www.betterforamerica.com